

NOTICE OF OPENINGS ON THE ACQ

Sept. 17, 2020

The Advisory Council on Quality Supports for People with Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities (ACQ) advises the New Mexico Department of Health on the systems guiding the provision of services and supports that assist people with Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities of all ages and their families to be fully included in New Mexico communities.

There are openings available in the following categories:

- People with I/DD and/or members of their families. The ACQ supports the participation of members of the ACQ with I/DD and family members in accordance with the NM State Mileage and Per-Diem Act. (3 vacancies)
- Provider Agency Representative (2 vacancies)
- Self-Advocacy Organization and Network (2 vacancies)

The ACQ holds 6 public meetings each year. The ACQ will consider applications at their next ACQ meeting on Thursday, October 8, 2020. The ACQ wishes to expand the geographical representation of members. Therefore, new nominations will only be considered for people who live outside the Albuquerque/Metro area. People who live in the Metro area will not be considered at this time. However, based on recent guidance from the Office of the Governor, a provider who lives in Albuquerque but provides services to people outside of the Metro area may be considered for ACQ membership. Selected individuals' names and qualifications will be recommended to the Office of the Governor for appointment. Each term is for a 3- year period.

People interested in being considered for election and subsequent appointment to the ACQ should email a résumé and a letter of interest to Wendy Corry, DDSD ACQ Administrator, by Thursday, September 30, 2020 at wendy@corryconsulting.com or call at 505-238-0047.

Thanks in advance for your interest in joining this vital team!
