What is in this for me?

If you decide to apply for a Special Needs Housing apartment:

You will have someone to call when there is a challenge or problem in your life. Staff can help to find resources that may be available in your local community for:

- Medical equipment
- Assistance with food, clothing, utilities and rent
- A caretaker or aide
- Help with an Income Tax Return
- Apply or recertify for government benefits, food stamps (SNAP), etc.

All services and information are completely confidential and private

If you or anyone in your household requires a specific accommodation in order to fully utilize the Special Needs housing apartment, please call the Local Lead Agency contact at (505) 454-5100.
New Mexico Special Needs Housing Initiative for San Miguel County

What is the New Mexico Special Needs Housing Initiative?
This initiative is part of the New Mexico Behavioral Health Purchasing Collaborative’s Supportive Housing Plan to create permanent supportive housing or special needs housing for individuals and families in New Mexico who could benefit from affordable housing with support services.

What is Special Needs Housing?
Rental apartments that come with support services for people who have difficulty living independently and successfully in the community and may become homeless or institutionalized without these support services.

What Housing Services will be available?
Applicants who are eligible for special needs housing will receive the following services:

- Pre-tenancy assistance including completing applications and obtaining documentation.
- Move-in assistance including obtaining security deposits, furniture and utility resources (depending upon availability).
- Maintaining tenancy through services coordination to ensure long term stability

How to Qualify
To qualify for a Special Needs housing apartment, all applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Must have incomes at or below 50% of area median income for San Miguel County:
   - Family of One: $18,350/yr; $1,154/month
   - Family of Two: $20,950/yr; $1,745/month
   - Family of Three: $23,550/yr; $1,962/month
   - Family of Four: $26,150/yr; $2,179/month

   and

2. Qualify as a Special needs household, in which an individual or household member has a substantial, long term disability which includes any of the following: (1) Serious Mental Illness; (2) Addictive Disorder (i.e., individuals in treatment and demonstrated recovery from substance abuse disorder); (3) Developmental Disability; (4) Physical, sensory, or cognitive disability occurring after the age of 22; (5) Disability caused by chronic illness) (6) Age-related Disability or, (7) households/individuals who are homeless.

   and

3. Have a designated services provider to provide needed services and to prevent tenant eviction.

Supportive Services. The tenant’s Referring Agency or selected Services Provider will provide on-going service coordination to ensure that the services needed by the special needs households are provided and eviction prevented.

Steps to Obtain a Special Needs Apartment

Step One: Obtaining an Application. You may obtain a Special Needs Housing application through your service provider or through Community Based Services, the designated Local Lead Agency (LLA) for San Miguel County. An application can be obtained by calling the Housing Coordinator at 505-454-5100 or, by sending an email to danelle.baca@state.nm.us

Step Two: Review of Application. Once the application is complete and all supporting documentation submitted and verified, special needs applications will be reviewed by the Local Lead Agency, (NM Behavioral Health Institute, Community Based Services). You will be notified whether you are eligible or not. Eligible applicants will be placed either in the initial lottery or later on the housing wait list.

Step Three: Referral of Qualified Consumer. Once the applicant gets to the top of the wait list and a special needs housing apartment becomes available that is a good match by apartment size and your income, you will complete and submit a lease application to the property manager for their review and approval.

Step Four: Moving into your apartment. Once the property manager has approved the application, the individual will attend a lease signing with the property manager and mutually decide on a move-in date.